THE ORIGINAL INDOOR / OUTDOOR
TEMPORARY PAINT
SPONGE MARKER®

In 1994, the Houston Rockets were in a playoff run for their first national championship. Founders Jody and Tracy Daniel, noticed a lot of fans were putting white shoe polish on their car windows in support of the Rockets. Jody thought it would be much better if fans could mark up their windows with yellow and red; the Rockets colors at the time. Thus began the process of inventing a formulation that would stay on in the rain and wipe off easily with a wet paper towel.

It took about 2 years working with a laboratory to develop the formulation that would become GlassChalk. In 1998, Glass Chalk was awarded a US Patent for this unique paint.

Millions of markers later, Glass Chalk is still proudly made in Texas.
